Nottinghamshire Sign Language Interpreting Service (NSLIS)

NSLIS is a well established, professional service that provides BSL/English Interpreters throughout the City and County of Nottinghamshire.

NSLIS comprises of a team of experienced interpreters, supported by a dedicated co-ordination team who provide interpreters in a wide variety of settings such as:

- Health appointments (GP, hospital etc)
- Employment meetings and training
- Conferences
- Social Services meetings
- Legal work
- Education
- Access to Work

All our interpreters are registered with the National Register of Communication Professionals working with Deaf and DeafBlind People (NRCPP) and follow their code of ethics.

The service is fully confidential and impartial. NSLIS prides itself on the quality of service provided through highly trained Staff.

The service operates during normal office hours Monday to Friday and is supported by an out-of-hours emergency service. We also take bookings for evenings and weekends

The co-ordinators also provide a duty-time service to support Deaf people with phone calls etc.

Duty Time Service

The duty time service is provided by the two co-ordinators in their office and also outreach offices in the north of the County.
