Job purpose

The purpose of Nottinghamshire Deaf Society is to empower deaf people so that their lives are enriched. We do this in the following ways:

- We support and encourage people
- We provide information and help people to learn
- We challenge decision makers and campaign for change
- We collaborate with others
- We set high standards for ourselves

Our vision is for a society in which all deaf people participate.

In the next 5 years we want to work with people of all ages with different types of deafness. We want to increase the number of partnerships we have with other organisations and groups. We will be known as a provider of services and involved and engaged with the wider deaf community.

Our 2 year strategy (2021-22) focuses on strengthening and consolidating our current services and activities while preparing to develop and expand through partnerships. We are aiming to strengthen and develop our interpreting service over this period so that we can sustain a quality service.

This role supports our vision and purpose by providing support to deaf people, enabling better communication. We expect that the post holder will also work to the highest standards, valuing quality in their work.

Nottinghamshire Deaf Society is committed to safeguarding children and adults at risk. Therefore this role is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (with Barred List) check.

Duties and responsibilities

Reporting to the Head of Service and/or a Senior Interpreter the post holder will undertake interpreting assignments to a high professional standard, working in the majority of domains. They will contribute as reasonably required to the overall development and promotion of the interpreting service, and the improvement of team performance.

Specific duties and responsibilities are:

- To undertake BSL/English interpreting assignments, including via video, as issued by the Booking Coordinators.
- To assist in providing a quality interpreting service as a member of the NDS Interpreting team.
- To co-work in a conscientious and professional manner.
- To attend team and NDS meetings, as required, and to contribute to the overall development and promotion of the service.
- To participate, as required, in the out of hours emergency service.
- To seek to analyse and develop own skills and knowledge of professional issues.
- To continue professional development.
- To receive regular supervision and support.
- To keep appropriate work records and follow agreed procedures.
- To conform to and work from the NRCPSD Code of Conduct for Communication Professionals.

General requirements for all staff:

- Treat all service users, volunteers and staff with courtesy, empathy and respect at all times.
- Actively participate in the work of the charity by positively contributing to development, training, team meetings and team building.
- Be aware of the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulations and other Data Protection legislation, ensuring confidentiality of information in respect of records maintained and tasks undertaken.
- Have an understanding of, and commitment to, Nottinghamshire Deaf Society's policies and procedures.
- Assist wherever possible with the positive promotion and general running of the charity's activities including the main office and any other reasonable duties.
- Maintain effective internal and external relationships and particularly with representatives of the Deaf community.
